

Dancewave Teaching Artist for 2021-2022

Dancewave Seeks Teaching Artists for the 2021-2022 school year for in-person residences in public schools, community center classes, and at the Dancewave Center in Brooklyn. East and West African and African Diaspora dance forms.

ABOUT:

Dancewave provides access to supportive and empowering dance experiences that center social, emotional, and cognitive development through movement. Developing programs to meet community needs, we use dance as a vehicle for transformation, expression, active citizenship, and self-reflection. Dancewave fosters a culture where dance is celebrated as a healing and inclusive art form.

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Teaching Artists needed for K-12 grades. The right candidate will have experience or the desire to work in a public school setting, be highly organized, and have strong class management skills. This is an exciting and rewarding position for educators who are interested in using dance as a vehicle for transformation, building inclusive, responsive, and developmentally appropriate lessons. Dancewave's priority is to actively uphold anti-oppressive and culturally responsive standards in teaching student-centered approaches to build community in the classroom.

Locations: Brooklyn, Bronx, Queens, and Manhattan*

Travel stipend may be available for long-distance assignments*

Schedule: TBD (based on school residences or class needs)

SALARY: $60-$75 (based on funding source and experience)

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Ideally 2-3 years of teaching experience, public school experience preferred.
- Background in dance, performing arts, communications, or equivalent
- Availability for in school and after school hours (8:00am-5:00pm)
- Required Training: All current and new Teaching Artists are required to review the annual Dancewave Arts Educator Training held on August 31, 2021. A recording from the training will be provided upon hiring.
